

June 2002

Sunny days in Rome make for colorful blooms

ROME, N.Y. — Spring arrived in a splash of color at the Air Force Research Laboratory's Rome Research Site. The flowery burst was the result of approximately 3,000 tulip and 400 daffodil bulbs planted last fall in a number of locations by volunteers from the Oneida County Master Gardeners and AFRL's Information Directorate Civil Engineering Branch. (Air Force Photo by Albert P. Santacroce)